PG Diploma in Hospital Administration

The Catholic Health Association of India (CHAI), in association with Loyola Academy, Secunderabad; Jackson State University, Mississippi; and a few leading hospitals in the country, offers a One-Year Postgraduate Diploma in Hospital Administration for the benefit of the hospitals and community healthcare institutions across the country. The programme has been designed and conducted with technical inputs from and guidance by a number of leading hospital administrators. Participants from within India and overseas are invited to join the programme. The programme will be conducted at the CHAI campus in Secunderabad.

Catholic Health Association of India (CHAI)

The Catholic Health Association of India (CHAI) was established in 1943 and its headquarters is at Secunderabad, Andhra Pradesh. It is one of the largest non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in the health care services in India. CHAI is a network of 3279 health care institutions that include big, medium and small hospitals, health centres and diocesan social service societies. The members of the association are located in various parts of the country -- urban, semi-urban, rural and tribal settlements -- and are engaged in extending health care facilities to the poor and the marginalized. Details of CHAI can be obtained from our website: www.chai-india.org
